2. CUSTOMER CONTENT

- a) Customer Content. Customer Content shall not be deemed part of any Helios services by virtue of being located on or processed through the Helios services. As between the parties, Customer or its licensors retain all right, title and interest (including any and all intellectual property rights) in and to the Customer Content and any modifications made thereto in the course of the operation of the Service. Cohesity is hereby expressly granted a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free right to access and process the Customer Content strictly to the extent necessary to provide the Services or as may be required by law.

Absent a written arrangement defining the scope of an Eval, the Eval shall be subject to the Evaluation Terms & Conditions at www.cohesity.com/agreements and last for a maximum of 30 days.

4. TERM AND TERMINATION

- a) Term. The term of this Agreement shall commence on the earlier of the date Customer accepts it or first uses Services (the "Effective Date") and will remain in effect until terminated by a Party in accordance with its terms (the "Term"). If there is no Entitlement in effect, either Party may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the other Party.
- b) Decrease or Suspension of Service. Cohesity may decrease or suspend Customer's access to or use of Services if (i) Customer has become insolvent, ceased to operate in the ordinary course, made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or become the subject of any proceeding in any jurisdiction related thereto; (ii) Cohesity reasonably in good faith believes Customer's use of the Service poses an immediate security risk to Helios or any third party, or (iii) as required by law or a governmental authority.
- c) Termination by Cohesity. Cohesity may terminate this Agreement on seven (7) days written notice if Customer fails to cure 4(b)(i) or 4(b)(ii) within a reasonable period as determined by Cohesity in its discretion. Cohesity may also terminate this Agreement on written notice in the event of a material breach of this Agreement by Customer which remains uncured following expiration of a thirty (30) day notice specifying the breach, or effective immediately if the breach is incapable of cure.
- d) Termination by Customer. Customer may terminate this Agreement on written notice (a) in the event of a material breach of this Agreement by Cohesity which remains uncured following expiration of a thirty (30) day notice specifying the breach, or (b) at any time for convenience on sixty (60) days' prior written notice; provided that Cohesity shall not be obligated to refund any prepaid Entitlements.
- e) Effects of Termination. All terms of this Agreement which must survive in order to fulfil their essential purpose shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement. For clarity, upon termination of this Agreement all rights and Entitlements granted Customer hereunder to use or access Services terminate immediately, Customer will make no further use of the Services, and each Party shall upon request return or destroy all Confidential Information of the other Party.
- f) Customer Content After Termination. Access to Entitled Services ceases on the last day of the applicable Subscription Period, provided however that Customer may continue to access the Services for thirty (30) days thereafter solely to the extent necessary to retrieve Customer Content (“Retrieval Period”). During Evals, the Retrieval Period shall be no greater than 7 days and Customers are advised to use test data. UPON EXPIRATION OF THE RETRIEVAL PERIOD, COHESITY RESERVES THE RIGHT TO DELETE CUSTOMER CONTENT AND SEEK COMPENSATION FOR USAGE BY CUSTOMER DURING THE RETRIEVAL PERIOD.

5. CONFIDENTIALITY

- a) Ownership of Confidential Information. “Confidential Information” means all financial, business, strategic, technical and/or product information (and any other information that a reasonable person in the technology industry would understand to be confidential), in any form or medium and whether or not marked as confidential disclosed by a Party (“Discloser”) and received by the other Party (“Recipient”) before or during the term of this Agreement, including this Agreement and all economic terms between the Parties but excluding (a) information already known by the Recipient without obligation of confidentiality, (b) information that is or becomes publicly known other than through breach of this Agreement, (c) information received by the Recipient from a third party not known (in good faith) by the Recipient to be under an obligation of confidence to the Discloser, and (d) information independently developed by the Recipient without reference to or use of the Discloser’s Confidential Information. For clarity (and without limitation), non-public information and any benchmarking or comparative studies relating to or involving the Helios services is Cohesity’s Confidential Information, and Customer Content is Customer’s Confidential Information. The Confidential Information of the Discloser is and will remain the property and asset of the Discloser. Except for the licenses expressly granted herein, nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to constitute a license in favor of a Party to any proprietary rights of the other, including, without limitation, any patents, copyrights, trademarks or trade secrets.
- b) Confidentiality Obligation. Except as required by law, the Recipient shall in respect of the Discloser’s Confidential Information for the term of this Agreement and three (3) years thereafter (but for trade secrets for so long as it is a trade secret):
- i. hold it in confidence using reasonable care and discretion;
 - ii. not intentionally disclose it or information derived from it to any third party other than its Representatives with a business need to know;
 - iii. not use it, except solely for the purposes contemplated by this Agreement;
 - iv. not export or reexport it or any product of it except in compliance with applicable laws and regulations; and
 - v. not copy, reverse engineer, or attempt to derive its underlying composition, information, structure or ideas.
- c) Compelled Disclosures. The Recipient may disclose Confidential Information required by law, order or legal process, provided it uses reasonable efforts to:
- i. promptly notify the Discloser of such requirement;
 - ii. limit disclosure; and
 - iii. obtain confidential treatment or a protective order.
- d) Return of Confidential Information. The Recipient will upon request by the Discloser at any time return or destroy Discloser’s Confidential Information, including any reproductions, summaries or extracts, provided however that the Recipient:
- i. unless this Agreement has been terminated, may retain such Confidential Information as it reasonably requires in order to perform its obligations under, and otherwise comply with, this Agreement;
 - ii. may retain one (1) copy of Confidential Information to the extent required for legal or regulatory purposes; and
 - iii. will not be required to delete electronic copies of Confidential Information stored in disaster recovery or archival storage.
- The Recipient’s obligations of confidentiality survive return or destruction of Confidential Information and continue to apply to any Confidential Information retained.
- e) Independent Product Development. This Agreement shall not (provided its terms are complied with) limit a Party’s right to:
- i. independently develop or acquire products or services similar to those included in any Confidential Information;
 - ii. enter any transaction with a third party which owns or has rights to such similar products or services;
- or

- iii. disclose or use general learning, skills or know-how developed by its employees if to do so would not be regarded by a person of ordinary skill in the relevant area as a disclosure or use of Confidential Information hereunder.
- f) Unauthorized Use. The Recipient will notify the Discloser promptly upon discovery of any unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information or other breach of this Agreement, and reasonably cooperate with the Discloser to regain possession of the Confidential Information and prevent its further unauthorized use or disclosure. The Recipient acknowledges and agrees that due to the unique nature of the Discloser's Confidential Information, there can be no adequate remedy at law for breach of its obligations hereunder, and such breach may allow the Recipient or third parties to unfairly compete with the Discloser, resulting in irreparable harm. Therefore, if the Recipient or its Representatives breach (or attempt or threaten to breach) this Agreement, the Discloser shall have the right, in addition to any other remedies, to seek equitable and injunctive relief without the requirement of posting a bond or other security.

6. INDEMNIFICATION

- a) Indemnification by Customer. Customer will defend, indemnify, and hold Cohesity, its affiliates, suppliers and licensors, and each of their respective officers, directors, employees and representatives, harmless from and against any claims, damages, losses, liabilities, costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) ("Losses") arising out of or relating to any third party claim with respect to breach of this Agreement or violation of applicable law by Customer or its Users.
- b) Indemnification by Cohesity. Cohesity will defend, indemnify, and hold Customer, its Affiliates, suppliers and licensors, and each of their respective officers, directors, employees and Representatives, harmless against any claims, damages, losses, liabilities, costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) ("Losses") arising from any third-party action brought against Customer based upon a claim (a) with respect to Cohesity's breach of this Agreement or violation of applicable law; or (b) that any of the Services (property utilized by such persons in the form provided by Cohesity) infringes any third-party intellectual property rights. If any portion of the Services become, or in Cohesity's opinion are likely to become, the subject of an infringement claim, Cohesity may, at its sole option and expense, either (a) procure for Customer the right to continue exercising the rights licensed to it in this Agreement; (b) replace or modify the affected Service or portion thereof so that it becomes non-infringing; or (c) take any other action reasonably deemed advisable by Cohesity related to such infringement claim. In the event none of these remedies is available and/or practical, Cohesity may, in its sole discretion, terminate the right to use the Service and return to Customer the fees paid with respect to the infringing Service, reduced on a prorated basis for each month the Service is used by Customer. This indemnification obligation shall not apply to infringement actions or claims to the extent that such actions or claims are based on or result from: (i) modifications made to the Services by a party other than Cohesity, unless Cohesity approves such modification; (ii) the combination of any with the Service; (iii) the combination of the Services with products, processes, services or materials not supplied by Cohesity, unless Cohesity approves such combination; (iv) any activities with respect to the Services by Customer not authorized by this Agreement or the Documentation; or (v) any Services (or portions or components thereof) not created by Cohesity.
- c) Notice of Claim and Indemnity Procedure. In the event of a claim for which a Party seeks indemnity or reimbursement under this Section 6 (each an "Indemnified Party") from the other Party (each an "Indemnifying Party") and as a condition of the indemnity, the Indemnified Party shall:
 - i. notify the Indemnifying Party in writing as soon as practicable, but in no event later than thirty (30) days after receipt of such claim, together with such further information as reasonably necessary for the Indemnifying Party to evaluate the claim (to the extent in the Indemnified Party's possession or knowledge). Any delay in giving such notice shall preclude or limit the Indemnified Party from seeking indemnification or reimbursement hereunder only to the extent such delay (i) materially prejudices the Indemnifying Party's ability to defend the claim or (ii) materially affects the amount of damages awarded for, or paid in settlement of, the claim;
 - ii. allow the Indemnifying Party to assume full control of the defense of the claim, including retaining counsel of its own choosing; and
 - iii. reasonably cooperate with the Indemnifying Party in the defense of the claim.
 Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, the Indemnifying Party shall have no obligation to indemnify or reimburse for any Losses paid by any Indemnified Party voluntarily, and without the Indemnifying Party's prior written consent, to settle a claim. Neither Party will be responsible for any settlement it does not approve in writing. Upon the assumption by the Indemnifying Party of the defense of a claim, the Indemnifying Party will not be liable for the fees or expenses of counsel retained by any Indemnified Party.
