

Self-Paced eCourses with Labs

Gain access to a set of hands-on, real world lab activities to inspire improved clarity and understanding of Cohesity's data management solutions. Self-Paced eCourses with Labs come with guided, step-by-step activities on administering, configuring, and managing Cohesity products. Guides and activities are equivalent to that of Instructor-Led Courses, minus the instructor.

What's Included:

Lab Access

Students gain access to our lab environment for six months, providing opportunities to test, experiment, and explore product features in a risk-free setting. Access starts on the first day of the course.

Courses

Choose from dozens of course offerings covering NetBackup, NetBackup Appliances, NetBackup operating system differences, and more. View the course options and syllabus at Cohesity Academy or in the Customer Course Catalog.

Duration

The duration of each course ranges between 2 to 5 days.

Badges

Virtual badges are awarded upon completion. Each badge includes metadata that highlights the skills and achievements gained from the course curriculum. Badges can be easily shared on email signatures, digital resumes, and social media platforms.

Access to Free Self-Paced eCourses

All customers benefit from ongoing complimentary access to our selection of free self-paced training resources. These courses do not include labs.
